Get Ready For 2012

As December rolls towards Christmas, we mark the passing of a remarkable man, Bob Riedel, with an L/L Research Gathering held in his honor on April 17 – 19, 2009, at Camelot, L/L Research's Louisville campus.

Bob had intended before his recent passing to create a seminar concerning 2012 and how to prepare for it. He had even scheduled the hotel, in Williamsburg, Virginia, and begun plans to create it last October. But his "bad back" escalated rapidly, and last month, he entered larger life.

Bob asked me to speak at that seminar-that-never-was, and I could not do it. The timing was wrong for me. However now, with time to plan, my faithful Admin, Gary, Avalon Farm's Caretaker, Melissa and I have created a "Get Ready For 2012" Gathering in Bob's honor for next April. Since my new book, Living the Law of One 101: The Choice, is on that very topic, we will use that book as a study source. We will have an orientation session on Friday night. Then, in several sessions, I will offer some teaching and discussion from 101 on Saturday.

Bob loved to eat, and he had several restaurants here in Louisville which he greatly enjoyed. So we will make a point of eating meals at three of those restaurants, Lynn's Paradise Café, The Captain's Quarters and Ruby Tuesday's.

Bob was especially fond of our wilderness farm, Avalon. He and Melissa corresponded frequently about farm issues and Bob donated his truck to Avalon the summer before he died. So we will spend part of Sunday on Avalon, have a picnic, hike the trails and have a closing channeling meditation there, if we can figure out how to tape the session without power!

Camelot is lovely in April, with the daffodils in bloom and the tulips beginning their glory. We hope that this occasion will appeal to you and we warmly invite you to come. The tuition will be $200.00 per person, with $40.00 earmarked for Avalon Farm. Tenting on our land is free. Motel and meal costs will be extra.

Please let Gary (contact@llresearch.org) know as soon as possible if you are interested. We have room for only 14 people, and this event may fill up quickly.

Channeling Intensive 4

We will have Channeling Intensive 4 here at Camelot from February 5 through 8, 2009. All of those who have gone through the introductory sessions are welcome to attend. We missed several of you at CI-3 and encourage you to join us once again! Our curriculum will continue to be the material collected on channeling from our archives. The fee for this occasion will be $160.00, plus the cost of food and hotels. Please let Gary know so he can reserve your place in the Channeling Circle.

Bring4th.org

On Christmas day, December 25, 2008, we will officially launch our community-oriented sister website: www.bring4th.org. (Follow this link to view our countdown timer.)

The website will feature community forums, member blogs, social networking features, and chat rooms, among other items of interest. As Gary, L/L's admin is telling anyone who will listen, "It shall rock!"

To launch the website officially, we will host a ceremonial cutting of the ribbon party here in Louisville, Kentucky. During the ceremony, I will "flip the switch" and Bring4th will go live!

Please stay tuned for further information!

Happy Holidays to each and every one of you from Gary, Melissa, Romi, Jim and me! Come see us!

Other Law of One Study Groups

The following a list of study groups forming or already formed around the world along with their contact information. Feel free to join them in study if you find yourself in their neck of the woods!

If you would like to see your group added to or removed from this list, please let us know.

The Awakening Project

Ft. Myers, Florida
Headed by Michael Toth

British Law of One Study Group

Forest Row and Abbots Langley, England
Headed by Ian Bond bond.ian@talktalk.net and Pupak Haghighi hoopoesong@gmail.com

"Our group meets once a month, usually on a Sunday, we spend part of our time reading parts of 'Law of One' material, or some of the Q'uo transcripts. We then share a meal together, to which everyone contributes. If time allows we might go for a walk if it's not raining too heavily - it's England here. In the later part of the day we focus on our personal seeking, which begins with a period of silent meditation after which we do a round-robin sharing, then ask what is it that we are seeking, each individually and as a group. We call upon and ask the collective group intelligence to address our seeking and usually the response we get through our collective reflection is profound and often satisfying!"

The Chicago Law of One Study Group (TCLOOSG)

Chicago, Illinois
Headed by Steve Moffitt wh\_smoffitt@yahoo.com

The Goose Creek Study Group

Goose Creek, South Carolina

Headed by Dan Wiberg

sttoad@comcast.net

843-452-8026

“Our group meets once a month, usually on the first Monday. We discuss what we have read and share our understanding. At present we are early in our study and each is reading at his own pace. I remain available for discussion at any time during the month and have had one-on-one sessions to suit. (I find mostly that the individual tries to make it more difficult than it seems). We emphasize meditation.”

“In order to engender participation we have guest speakers come and provide other metaphysical related subjects. (Like introduction to Shamanism, drum journeys, the use of crystals, healing). We advertise the meetings on the internet via consciousness meetup.com. We diversify in a way similar to the Memphis study group. I try not to make it like a classroom environment, as that tends to alienate the members. Having a structured setting, such as a bible study, tends to mirror church-like activities that so many have been soured on.”

Maria's Law of One Study Group

Headed by Maria R

mrati77@gmail.com

“Meet via videoconferencing software over the internet every Friday night 9 pm EST. Read through, question and discuss approximately one RA session per meeting. Group just started in November of this year. Current participants have all previously met at recent L/L Research Channeling Intensives.”

The Memphis Law of One Study Group

"The Sanctuary", 6266 Stage Road, Bartlett, TN 38134

Led by Dean Graves deangraves@bellsouth.net and

Carol Crane seacrane@bellsouth.net

(901) 377-6468

“We have public meetings the first Sunday of every month at 2:00 p.m.. While the subject matter is centered around the Law of One material, we do diversify the source of our information, using the RA material as the touchstone to put it all into perspective. Individuals with experience in other areas of spiritual study are welcome to share their information with the group. We feel this broadens the understanding of all who attend the meetings.”

Literra Law of One Study Group

Spring Green, WI

Literra@merr.com

“The Spring Green (Wisconsin) Law of One Study Group hosted by Jim and Maxine Pfefferkorn:

The monthly meeting (usually for 4 hours on a Sunday afternoon) format starts with a brief meditation, followed by introductions, then opening the floor for discussion of anything attendees wish to explore pertaining to the Law of One, and sometimes Jim will lead us in covering some material from his workbook," The Soul and The Creation, based on the Law of One," (which is available for $20 plus shipping). We break halfway for some munchies and beverages folks have brought. Socializing during the break is heartwarming and a highlight of the gathering. We reconvene and continue with more discussion and close by gathering in circle and chanting "OM."

The fellowship has been the most important and fun for the folks who have attended."

L/L Research Law of One Study Group

Louisville, KY

Led by Carla Rueckert-McCarty and Jim McCarty

contact@llresearch.org

Public meditations are held every Saturday at 8 PM from September through May. First and third Saturdays are held for silent meditations, second and fourth Saturdays for channeling meditations, and on fifth Saturdays no mediation is scheduled. We always begin with a round-robin discussion in which people can share as they wish. All are welcome!
