The Fool

What started as a simple project to tidy up L/L Research's tarot images for printing turned out to be full of Choices that needed to be made.

Images

The first seven cards were redrawn by L/L Research (based on the tarot of the Brotherhood of Light, drawn by C. C. Zain/Elbert Benjamine) and published in the new edition of Law of One, book two.

The remaining images exist in several subtly different versions, none of which are discussed in the Law of One. In most cases I have used the images from John Dequer's 1949 deck, as published by L/L research. I chose to use the original Brotherhood of Light images for cards 17 and 21 as I found these more enjoyable to look at.

Card 22 is spliced: the Fool is from the Brotherhood of Light deck, but the crocodile is from the Dequer image.

Extra symbols

In general, I have followed the precedent of removing all extra symbols and stars. However, I enjoyed the stars in card 17 and the fish in the footer bar of card 12 so I decided to keep these.

Wishing you love, light, and joyful seeking,
M. W.
